

Telemarketing is the most insidious form of privacy invasion that I've ever encountered. How dare people interrupt the sanctuary of my home for their own gain! As a taxpayer, I demand the courtesy of not being harrassed by parties hawking their good. Be assured, if I need to purchase something, I know exactly how to go about it!

Please make the ethical choice by upholding no-call lists for all governmental entities that require them!